

Petition of Aaron Crowson, Sept. 29th 1821, sent to Alan Bryan Esq., Murfreesboro, Tenn. Box 25- Legislative Papers, Tenn. Archives, Nashville, Tenn.

At the last circuit court of Sevier County James Bradshaw indicted for assault on Pleasant H. Butler "with a gun"; he pled guilty and was fined $50.00. Crowson and James Cannon secured fine. Bradshaw absconded and left State for Alabama. Little chance to collect from other security. Times hard and money scarce and Crowson asked for relief from fine. Pition marked "unreasonable" on back.
